

First Grade Blizzard Bag

#2

Reading: Read: The story with no title, answer the questions.

Math: Addition of Numbers 1-10 AD
Libs Worksheet-The Marble Collector

Writing: Write a story with a beginning, middle, and end, use the Snowman stationary.

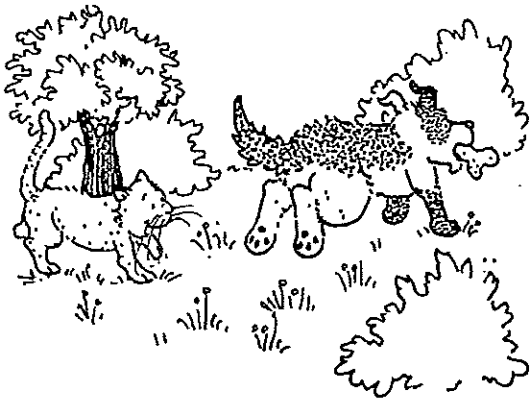

Parents, For Your Information: 86 words, 6 new words—has, after, dig, hide, his, food

LISTEN to your child read this story aloud.

What is this? Scruffy has something to eat. He will eat and eat and eat. Sam looks at Scruffy. He wants to eat too.

Scruffy will run. He will not let Sam eat. Sam will run. He runs after Scruffy. He wants to eat.

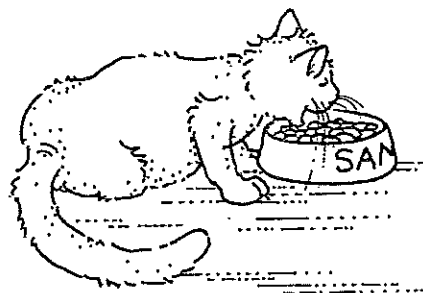

Sam looks at Scruffy. Scruffy will dig. He will dig and dig and dig. He will hide his food.

Now there is no food. Sam will go to the house.

He can eat there. There is food in the house for Sam.

Name: _____

ADDITION OF NUMBERS 1-10 AD LIBS

Think of a word for each category and write it on the line.

1. person's name: _____

2. vehicle: _____

3. place: _____

On the blank lines in the story, write the words you picked. Then read the story aloud.

Pigs Go for a Ride

Farmer Joe is driving down _____ Street. There are 2 squealing
(1)

pigs in the back of his _____. Farmer Jill drives up behind him with 0 squealing pigs in her sports car. They stop at the _____ to talk about the weather. How many squealing pigs are there in all?
(2)

(3)

Write the equation. Then write the answer in the sentence.

$$\begin{array}{r} \square \\ + \square \\ \hline \square \end{array}$$

There are _____ squealing pigs.

